The Best Yield strategies generated ~20% of the total fees. The stablecoin pools (i.e. USDC, DAI and USDT) were still the dominant BY pools by TVL and fees.

Perpetual Yield Tranches' fees accounted for ~80% of the M4 inflow.

Income Statement

The fourth mandate of 2022 showed a generalized improvement of the performances with respect to the last mandate. The macro economics trends kept on being adverse, but DAO Leagues were able to release new Tranches that performed better with respect to incumbent ones.

Idle Finance saw a steady TVL and an increase in fees generated. The major expenses of the mandate were related to Leagues contributors rewards. The expenses restructure started in M2-2022 lead to a ~15% decrease (vs M3-2022) on DAO contributors rewards.

Despite the adverse market conditions, Idle DAO kept on building and closed new partnerships with the goal to make the protocol more resilient against future market shocks. The last mandate of 2022 ended with a net profit of $29k.

Balance Sheet

In M4-2022 the Idle DAO's total assets shrank to $3,654,441 mainly due to the price impact on DAO's treasury balances. Cash and cash equivalent increased by ~59% with respect to the last mandate holdings.

No new borrowing positions have been opened during the mandate.

DAO's reserves (mainly in IDLE) summed up to $3,079,652 showing a 17% decrease with respect to M3-2022. This was mainly caused by the high correlation of IDLE and ETH and the down trend affecting both tokens and the ecosystem as a whole.

	$ (47,750)	$ (44,122)		$ 3,628

Budget vs Actual

The budget of M4-2022 summed up to $48k continuing the process of reducing the expenses for the DAO (~27% decrease with respect to M3-2022 budget). Majority of the budget was again devoted to cover the Leagues rewards and only a minor part of it was used for the Operation expenses.

Out of $38k budgeted for Leagues rewards, $42k were used (~109% usage). This excess can be partially related to a new full-time contributor joining the DAO Leagues.

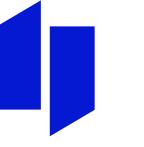

The only significant Leagues operations costs of the mandate were the ones incurred by the Treasury League, which spent ~$2k.

Overall the M4 budget followed the expectations, with a $4k excess capital.
